Lessons From James Wednesday Night Bible Study

A Divided Heart

Scripture Focus: James 4:1-12

1-3

- James identifies that conflicts come from our selfish desires. How does this change the way you see conflicts in your life? How do you think you might engage others when there is conflict in the future?
- How have motives influenced what you have prayed for in the past? How might changing the source of what you desire shift your prayers?

4-5

- James gives an example of our relationship with the world and what that means for our relationship with God. What are some ways that being a friend of the world puts us at odds with God?
- What are some ways that we can protect our relationship with God?

6-10

- How has our heart, desires, and actions communicated that they are above God or that God is less of an authority or priority?
- Have you resisted the enemy and drawn closer to God? How did you do that and how has it changed your life?

11-12

- How can some of the ways we speak about others be identified as speaking evil of someone and what does it reveal about us?
